

Dear Chairman Powell,

I believe there should be less consolidation of the media, not more. The recent Clear Channel/Dixie Chicks imbroglio reminds us that assuring fairness in the media through self-regulation is tenuous at best. Please defer any vote allowing more consolidation until and unless more free public access is granted.

Sincerely,
Ralph Colby